The game is free to download and free to play. All the codes are tested and worked fine in our game! and to watch in the game: - Press the right trigger - The right analog stick (horizontal movement) - + left analog stick (vertical movement) V - 1-4 are the buttons (press 1 to buy, 2 for upgrade, 3 for a e-mail alert, 4 for a video message) A - x is the item you want to upgrade or you want to swap with another person The numbers 3 and 4 only appear when you swap items with other players, e.g. - Player 1 wants to buy an apple with number 4 - Player 2 wants an Apple with number 3 - Player 1 will get the apple with number 3, Player 2 will get the apple with number 4. -You can buy more than one item at once -You can't swap an apple and a cherry -You can't jump using the analog stick -You can't jump using the right trigger -Player jumps while looking down To prepare the items for the process - Click on the inventory button at the side of the screen - Scroll to the numbers 3 and 4 To swap items with another player - Click on the player you want to swap with - Press number 3 - Press the right trigger or the right analog stick - Click on the number 4 -Press the left trigger - Player will now have the same items in his inventory as the other player To leave the game - Click on any button at the side of the screen - Press 1 - Press the right analog stick - Click on any button at the side of the screen - Player will now exit the game NOTE: -To convert a.cad file into.obj, you can use a program like Petteri's MBT OBJ Converter NOTE: -To use the version I have provided it is necessary to have a Microsoft Windows system to use the exe file. If you try to run the exe file on Linux, you'll get an error. NOTE: -The.obj format is only compatible with OBJ viewers like MeshLab.
